

Welcome to Rare Albion²

The world of finance as you never imagined it could be!

Sassoon Gallery
1 – 22 August

In February 2014, Rare Albion¹ was staged at Strange Cargo Gallery in the Old High Street, Folkestone. This year Rare Albion² will be staged at the Sassoon Gallery, Folkestone. The idea is to take us into a world in which money and capital are understood very differently, a world where capital follows imagination, where money enables material needs to be met, where people are aware of how finance works – just like they were in the Renaissance.

The exhibition – more of an event – will feature a range of exhibits, workshops and other media designed to bring the world of finance to life. Not as some oppressive, dismal place inhabited by grey-suited experts, but as the place where dreams can come to expression, initiatives can be taken, and people can find themselves and where they are on their journey in life.
